FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We've all experienced great days when we feel we could accomplish anything. But imagine that God visits and calls you to serve on your worst day. How would you respond then? In the first reading, Isaiah feels unworthy. Simon Peter laments that he is not prepared. In the Gospel, Christ takes the soon-to-be apostles as they are. On our worst days, perhaps we need to keep this in mind: we do not become disciples because we are great people; we become reflections of God's glorious image in Christ due to our attempt to become disciples. But we begin that journey as disciples who are in many ways unqualified for the job. That is where God's grace comes in. And that is very Good News.

COMMUNITY NEWS/PARISH EVENTS

●Words cannot express the gratitude we have for the brave people who helped contain the fire that destroyed our garage building and car. the volunteer fire departments were very professional in all they did. they saved our house with minimal damage. neighbors and family pitched in to help remove things from the house when we were not sure that it could be saved. God was surely looking out for us last evening. thankfully there were no injuries.

Again, thanks to everyone who helped in any way.
Syl and Mary Kesel

Through the intercession of Saint Blase, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop McKnight's
February prayer intention for our Local Church

For those who are ill, depressed, or forgotten in society; may the charity and mercy of the local parish community manifest the healing presence of God and counter the culture of indifference.

Let Us Pray

Lord Jesus Christ, in your communion with Father Korte, Father Nimwesiga and all the priests throughout the world, I ask you to bless and sanctify them and make them holy. Strengthen and protect them against evil and temptation. Be a joy and a companion, a comfort and a consolation, and lead them forever on the narrow path that leads to Your Eternal Kingdom. Eternal Father, in your infinite mercy, overlook my sins and failings and hear my prayer.

Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world.

Blessed Pope Pius IX
