FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

In the Gospel, John offers a glimpse of new life: compassion and mercy offered to all, no matter their offense. The woman caught in adultery has no reason to expect forgiveness. But Jesus imagines a new order in which even accusers reflect on and realize their own failures. What person, aware of his or her own sin, could dare to condemn another? Reminded of their own sinfulness, the leaders reluctantly depart. To the woman, Jesus offers no condemnation. He does, however, show her how to embrace the new life God offers: "Go, and from now on do not sin any more" (Jn8:11).
