THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

On this Third Sunday of Easter Time, we hear of the disciples' unyielding determination to embrace their call to hear witness to Jesus, crucified but raised up by God. The earliest disciples who experienced the risen Christ and the beginnings of their own transformation continue to spread this message despite the cost. Do you ever feel like Peter in today's Gospel? He spends all night in a boat with no fish to show for it by sunrise. How often do we end up with nothing to show for our efforts? Later Peter jumps into the sea out of embarrassment. Do we ever feel burdened by shame?

St. Joseph was the earthly father of Jesus and a carpenter. Today, May 1st, we celebrate the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker. He stands as an example of the holiness of human labor to all those who are employed. Through our own work, God calls us to be examples of holiness to our coworkers and realize the dignity of human work.
