SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

In light of today's tensions and conflicts, it is tempting to think that early Christian life was far more peaceful. In fact, Jesus' disciples faced difference and conflict from the beginning. Some Judean Christians insisted that the Gentile Christians must follow all Jewish religious practices. Debates ensued between Paul and the disciples in Jerusalem, resulting in the decision that required Gentiles to follow only some Jewish practices.

We would like to thank everyone for their prayers, comforting words, visits, and cards during this difficult time. A special thanks to Father, Deacon Steve, John & Renae Fancher and the entire staff at Fancher-Rekus, Gail Rehagen and the rest of the choir for the beautiful music at the funeral, Martha Bax & Abby Berhorst for helping with the meal and all who have reached out to us since Tim's passing. Your kindness will never be forgotten.
Tim Otto family

We would like to extend our thanks, on behalf of Dr. Elizabeth Conley, to Father Joby, Gail Rehagen, the choir, John & Renae Fancher, Hunter Wilde, the servers, all who helped with the meal and those who attended or expressed condolences. A special thanks to Dennis & Janet Weckenborg for all your support and help during the last three weeks and being, as Liz put it, "the best neighbors anyone could have". Sometimes in our lives we have someone, although not related by blood, that is such a big part of your family. Liz was that to us and we are heartbroken that she was taken from us so quickly.

St. Philip Neri (1515-1595) could “read” people’s hearts. A confessor and spiritual director, he tried to free others from fear so they could live as God’s chosen ones. Through study, prayer, sharing and music, he invited others to union with Christ and one another with love.

Feast Day: May 26

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, thank You for fresh grace and a week full of promise. Lead me in Your ways and fill my heart with Your love and joy. Help me to see others as You see them. Father, I ask that You guide every decision, response, effort and conversation I have, all for Your glory. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.
