24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel combines three parables that explore God's abundant mercy. The parables of the lost sheep and the lost coin show God's mercy contradicting conventional human wisdom. Leaving ninety-nine sheep to find one who strayed is a bad business decision for a human shepherd, and the woman's party to celebrate the found coin might cost more than the coin. Both parables present God's mercy as hopelessly foolish. Why? Because, as the parables explain in vivid narrative, God's mercy is greater than human wisdom.

The Prodigal Son is a story of reconciliation. To be reconciled with another does not dismiss the hurt. Rather, to reconcile is to embrace God's steadfast mercy and work toward healing. Where is reconciliation needed in your life?
