Bishop McKnight's
September prayer intention for our Local Church

For all who serve in our community as first responders: that God may protect them from all harm, and that we be grateful for the sacrifices they make for the common good.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's reading introduces us to one of the Scripture's most vocal prophets on social justice. Amos was known for his harsh tone and earthy imagery as well as his preaching. He purposefully turned inside-out the slogans of self-righteous wealthy Israelites. They claimed to await the "Day of the Lord" when God will judge the world, but Amos assured them their treatment of the poor would be their ruin on that day. They claimed a special immunity because God brought them from Egypt, but Amos retorted that this privilege only made them all the more culpable after they wasted God's special treatment.

The Gospel develops the message regarding wealth and spirituality. One cannot be devoted both to wealth and to God in the same manner. In order to serve God, one must recognize the significant demands he makes for us regarding how we treat one another.

St. Teresa of Calcutta once said, "Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies." This holy woman filled her life with little actions, like giving a piece of bread to someone hungry or giving a hug to someone ill. These little actions made a big difference in the lives of the poor in Calcutta and inspired millions around the world.
