32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Intense family dynamics are on full display in today's reading. The Sadducees, in an attempt to corner Jesus, ask him about a particular marital situation in which a brother-in-law marries a widow to keep the family's land and name. Jesus responds by teaching about the resurrection in the Jewish tradition and how resurrected life is not bound by any earthly rules.

The National Vocation Awareness Week is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father,

You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes". Make our Diocese, parishes, homes, and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayers for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
