Sunday, April 16, 2023 – Second Sunday of Easter / Sunday of Divine Mercy

The resurrection’s transforming power is apparent in today’s readings. In the Gospel, the frightened disciples are changed as Jesus enters the room in which they are hiding. With the greeting Shalom, Jesus offers them blessings on every dimension of their being. This blessing, translated as “Peace be with you”, communicates God’s mercy. Jesus goes further by extending the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples saying, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them”. The Spirit’s power transforms their lives, enabling them to extend God’s mercy and forgiveness to those who seek it.

Please pray for the reposed soul of

An Easter Prayer

Dear Lord,
May I realize afresh today what Your Death and Resurrection mean for me. Forgiveness, freedom, and the ability to walk with You through this fallen world into eternity. May I always find my satisfaction in You and Your willingness to offer Yourself to me.
In Jesus' Name,
Amen.
